

NOT ALL SUPERHEROES WEAR CAPES...

Considering a career in teaching?

Do you have the passion and enthusiasm needed to become a primary teacher?

Want a more personalised approach to your degree or postgraduate teacher training?

PGCE with QTS (Primary and Early Years)

Our postgraduate routes to QTS include salaried and tuition fee options, with special school, early years or general primary options.

BA (Hons) Primary and Early Years Education with QTS

No degree? No problem! We have an exciting new undergraduate programme awarded by Birmingham City University, combining degree level study with real classroom experience.

Assessment Only

If you're an experienced teacher with a degree, you can achieve qualified teacher status (QTS) without having to do any further training.

Take your first step in becoming a superhero and train to teach with a sector leading initial teacher training provider.
